Why does Canada Raise Money by Selling Bonds?

BONDS are issued payable in ten or twenty years, as the case may be. It means that repayment of the money will be spread over ten or twenty years instead of being raised by taxation to meet current expenditures.

To raise by taxation all the money as fast as it is needed to carry on Canada's share in winning the war, would be an unbearable burden upon the people.

It would mean that more than a million dollars a day would have to be raised right now.

But to raise money by selling Canada's Victory Bonds means that those of the next generation who will benefit by the sacrifices this generation is making;—who will share in the freedom this generation is fighting for and largely paying for—will also pay their share.

And when you buy Canada's Victory Bonds you make a first-class business investment in a security that is absolutely safe, likely to enhance in value after the war, and bearing a good rate of interest.

You help the country by keeping open the British market for Canadian products and this helps the general welfare in which you share.

And again, every Canadian who buys a Victory Bond becomes a financial partner or backer of Canada in the war.

When you buy a Canada Victory Bond

you give a personal pledge that you are going to help to win the war.

Every man and woman in Canada can help to win the war by buying Canada's Victory Bonds. And Canada wants the personal, individual interest and co-operation of every man and woman in the country.

The buying of Victory Bonds by the whole people unites them in a determination to win the war.

Every purchase of Canada's Victory Bonds is a blow for freedom against the tyranny of German Kultur.

Every bond sold is a new guarantee that Canada is in the war to the finish, until victory is with the Allies and the world has been made safe to live in.

Every bond you buy is a new pledge that Canada will remain true to herself, the Empire, the Allies and to freedom's cause.

So it is both patriotic and good business to

Note and Comment

Every citizen is probably ready to accept the abstract principle, that the practice of thrift and economy, with the object of accumulating the wherewithal for purchasing war bonds, is good for his compatriots; but not all of us have applied that principle to our personal affairs to the extent that is desirable. It may not then be out of place to briefly outline practicable methods of saving by which each one may get together some additional dollars or hundreds of dollars for the admirable purpose of lending to the Government. When the way is thus plainly charted, refusal to take it is more likely to involve us in trouble with our respective consciences.

The expenditures of individual income producers are mainly under the following heads: rents, board, or interest on mortgages; semi-capital outlay on such things as house furniture, pianos, victrolas, motor cars, etc.; wages paid to domestic or personal servants; provisions; amusements and the outlay on tobacco, beer and spirits; holidays or vacation. Probably if any us sit down and severely analyze the personal expenditures as above classified, we should find a field for war loan savings under several of the heads. In view of the urgency of the Allies' need of funds, it is essential that every one overhaul the expense account with the object of saving every possible dollar for supporting our great cause. It has become bad form during the past three years to give ostentatious or expensive entertainments and social functions; and similarly, our amusements, recreations, holidayings, have taken on a sober aspect. A certain amount of expenditure in this time is necessary. In order to sustain health and maintain productive capacity. It is for each one of us to say to his conscience that his outlay for such purposes cannot be further reduced without injury to health or impairment to energy. If we cannot say this, there is only one thing to do and that is to apply the knife and divert the salvaged funds into the war loans. As regards the outlay on provisions and the expenditures on tobacco, beer, whiskey, etc., we should have the courage to apply the same rule. In the cases of the poor and of people of moderate means, the high prices have already forced them to practice the severest economy in connection with their expenditures for provisions—but the well-to-do and the rich can, in some instances, do good service to their country and mankind through further regulation of the kind referred to.

To get good results and to make healthy or satisfactory "recoveries" from the expense account, which will be available for war loan subscriptions it is necessary to have the hearty co-operation of the female members of the family. In many households it is the case that the women are more enthusiastic savers than the men, and far more ready to cut out the expenditure on non-essentials; and in the households where they still spend money freely for things they could do without, it is probably because they do not realize the grave issues that are at stake, and the great importance of having every family conserve its monetary resources. Self-denial in the matter of buying new furniture, pianos, autos, etc., if generally or universally practised, would give the Finance Minister many additional millions of dollars for carrying on the war. With respect to auto mobiles used for pleasure it is not only the capital expenditure that is lost to the national expenditure, but also the cost of operating or running the cars. For example, if a well-to-do citizen enters into an agreement with his conscience, that owing to the war he will postpone for two years the purchase of a $2,000 car, perhaps the loyal observance by him of this agreement would set free $3,000 in the two years for war loan purchases. To a certain extent, this applies to purchases of furniture, etc. In view of the sacrifices made every day by the members of our expeditious forces, it should not seem hard for "stay at home" to defer for a year or two the purchase of new furniture or other items not absolutely necessary. A careful analysis in each individual case of the several subdivisions of personal expenditures; if undertaken in the right spirit by a million Canadian families, might lead to the provision of an extra $100,000,000 in the course of a year for war purposes.

Goats Thrive Well in Alberta

For the first time on record a number of goats were recently offered for sale on the Calgary market, where they were the centre of interest. They were sent by a farmer whose place is situated between fifty and sixty miles northeast of Calgary. This farmer brought a small herd of Angora goats to Alberta some three years ago, and is well satisfied with the results he has had with them.

The No Indemnity Cry

Information has reached Washington that the Germans are removing the textile looms and machinery from the mills in southwestern Belgium. They are said to be destroying what cannot be shipped into Germany. Will the most enthusiastic Socialist or pacifist say that any peace could be just which did not require the despoiler to restore these wrecked factories, that Belgian workmen may again have the means of earning their living when the war is over?—Buffalo Express.

Helping to Finance Canada Making Regular Credits to Great Britain

The minister of finance announces that Canada intends to advance to the imperial treasury $25,000,000 a month so long as the war lasts to keep the munition business in operation and cover other purchases, such as cheese, etc. Canadian exports of cheese, chiefly for the army, exceed in value $40,000,000. Since the outbreak of the war Canada has supplied the British government in cash and securities $443,000,000.—Wall Street Journal.

The Wide Margins

Food and Victory to Be Gained by Co-operation of All

Herbert C. Hoover, U.S. food administrator, says that shortage in the world's food supply has caused the growth of a vast mushroom of speculation and unnecessarily high cost of living. Last year the farmers received $10 per bushel of wheat but the consuming population bought their flour based on over $250 wheat for a large part of the year. The unnecessary margins are not confined to wheat alone.—Banker Farmer, September.

WOMEN! IT IS MAGIC! LIFT OUT ANY CORN

Apply a few drops then lift corns or calluses off with fingers—no pain

Just think! You can lift off any corn or callus without pain or soreness. A Cincinnati man discovered this ether compound and named it freezone. Any druggist will sell a tiny bottle of freezone, like here shown, for very little cost. You apply a few drops directly upon a tender corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears, then shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can lift it right off.

Freezone is wonderful. It cures instantly. It doesn't eat away the corn or callus, but shrivels it without even irritating the surrounding tissue.

Hard, soft or corns between the toes, as well as painful corns, lift right off. There is no pain before or afterwards. If your druggist hasn't freezone, tell him to order a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house.

Bully for British Columbia

British Columbia may well point with pride to her mineral development. The annual report of her mineralogist shows that more than half a billion dollars has been produced during the 65 years since mining began.

The value of metalliferous minerals produced is $365,560,715; coal and coke, $163,829,315; building stone, clay products, lime, $27,215,254; gold, $114,559,364; silver, $36,415,124; zinc, $7,212,759.

Miller's Worm Powders will drive worms from the system without injury to the child. The powders are so easy to take that the most delicate stomach can assimilate them and welcome them as speedy easers of pain, because they promptly kill the worms that cause the pain and thus the suffering of the child is relieved. With so sterling a remedy at hand no child should suffer an hour from worms.

An Impudent Offer

Nominal independence, a powerless king sitting handcuffed and gagged on his mournful throne; German commercial control, German possession of the railroads and the ports a German army dominating the country and garrisoning its towns and forts. This is what Germany means when she speaks, as speak she will, of restoring Belgium. Chancellor Michaelis has the impudence to talk as if she had spoken of it already; to wonder at the refusal of the English and French to consider so handsome an offer, and to pretend that nothing stands in the way of negotiation—Belgium being thus disposed of—except Alsace-Lorraine.—New York Times.

American Donation to Canadian Red Cross

One of Uncle Sam's Soldiers Shows a Splendid Spirit

It is sometimes said that there is no sentiment in business, but it is time that in these days, particularly, sentiment plays a very large part in business. And when sentiment tends to draw allied nations still closer together it is, perhaps, the very best kind of business.

An experience with this kind of sentiment came to the notice of the land department of the Canadian Pacific railway at Calgary a short time ago. Mr. W. G. Fraser, of the aerial training station at San Francisco, had a balance of fifty dollars coming to him on a land transaction with the company. As Mr. Fraser is now lined up with Uncle Sam's fighting forces he desired that the money should go to some patriotic purpose and wrote the C.P.R. asking them to turn it over to the Canadian Red Cross. He might, of course, have had it paid direct to him, or to some American patriotic society, but he elected that it should go to the Canadian Red Cross, which a few days ago received a check for the amount.

The Ubiquitous, British

"Where are the British?" asks the German agent of the gullible American. They are everywhere. They are holding their own line in France and Belgium, rendering aid to the French line wherever needed, helping Italy batter her way to Rome, cleaning Germany out of Africa, furnishing the bulk of Sarraill's army in Macedonia, fighting their way through Mesopotamia, aiding the Russians in Galicia, battling with the Germans and Turks in Palestine. There is no nation among the allies whose troops are so ubiquitous.—New York Times.

Canadian Toy Imports

Over Two-Thirds of Them Last Year Came From United States

Canadian imports of toys for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1917, show that out of a total of $930,066 worth $621,504 came from the United States. Japan ranked next with $179,465, while of the balance $99,094 came from the United Kingdom and about $20,000 from France.

As compared with the fiscal year ended March 31, 1916, this is a gain for American toy-makers of $172,054, for Japan of $112,500 and for the United Kingdom of about $17,000. France, however, suffered a $7,636 loss.

The most important articles imported, it is said, are dolls, with mechanical and miscellaneous toys ranking second.

China's Definition

To us the real interest in unearthing the Kaiser's speech is historical. History has the laugh on Wilhelm. For the very Chinamen who were expected never again to look askance at any German have already looked askance at 70,000,000. They did not wait a thousand years. Rightfulness has not prevented their entrance to the world war. In China, where things are generally upside down and worsted end to, they cherish the definition, "Rightfulness! That which does not frighten." And we may add that the definition has met with a cordial reception the world over.—Chicago Tribune.

THE FALL WEATHER HARD ON LITTLE ONES

Canadian fall weather is extremely hard on little ones. One day it is warm and bright and the next wet and cold. These sudden changes bring on colds, cramps and colic, and unless baby's little stomach is kept regular the result may be serious. There is nothing so equal Baby's Own Tablets in keeping the little ones well. They sweeten the stomach, regulate the bowels, break up colds and make baby thrive. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

4,000 Applications for Sheep From Manitoba Farms

The announcement recently made by the minister of agriculture for the province of Manitoba that his department would expend $125,000 on the purchase of sheep in Ontario to be sold to Manitoba farmers at cost, has already resulted in 4,000 applications being received. The department of agriculture has now announced that it would not limit the purchase to $125,000; but it is feared that in view of the number of applications received it will be impossible to procure sufficient sheep to supply the demand. The high price which has been obtained for wool, together with the low cost at which sheep can be reared in Western Canada, is inducing a considerable number of farmers to take up sheep raising, while those who have already made a beginning in this line are making every effort to increase the size of their herds.

THOSE AWFUL CRAMPS

Suggestions that may save Much Suffering

Maryville, Pa.—"For twelve years I suffered with terrible cramps. I would have to stay in bed for seven days every month. I tried all kinds of remedies and was treated by doctors, but my trouble continued until one day I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for others. I tried it and now I am never troubled with cramps and feel like a different woman. I can now go to work and I am recommending it to my friends who suffer as I did."

NO TERMS YET IN SIGHT WHICH WILL LEAD TO ENDURING PEACE

STIRRING ADDRESS DELIVERED BY LLOYD GEORGE

British Prime Minister Says That No One Would Prolong the War Longer than is Necessary to Secure a Lasting Peace, and One That Will Not Lead To a More Devastating War

Right Hon. David Lloyd George, speaking at a meeting held in London recently, for the purpose of launching a campaign for the restoration of the national economy, said in part: "I am not going to predict when the end of the war will come. No man in his senses would prolong it one hour if there were opportunity for real and lasting peace. (Loud applause.) But it must be a lasting peace. (Loud applause.) It must not be a peace which is a prelude to a new and more devastating war. As you may imagine, I have been scanning the horizon anxiously. I cannot see any terms in sight which would lead to an enduring peace. I feel that the only terms which would be possible now would be terms which would end in an armed truce. I will say an armed truce ending in even more frightful struggles."

"That is why we are putting all our strength into getting the right issue into this conflict now (Cheers). But I may be asked the question: Is such a settlement within immediate reach? I have already told you that in my judgment frankly it is not. Germany in my judgment would only make peace now on terms which would enable her to benefit by the war in which she has wantonly plunged the world. That would mean that Germany would profit by her own wicked venture and it would be an encouragement for any buccannier empire of the future to repeat the experience."

"More than twice as many German submarines were lost in the first ten months of this year as in all of last year, the premier asserted."

The British tonnage lost monthly now is not much more than one-third of the total destroyed last April.

Mr. Lloyd George said that "Bolsism" in all its shapes and forms should be looked out for.

"Beware of people who try to sow dissension, distrust and suspicion," he said. "The enemy is trying to rattle our nerves. Keep steady and we will win."

The way to shorten the war, said Mr. Lloyd George, was to prepare for a long war. He added that the premier said eyes must be kept steadfastly on the great purpose of the war, which was destruction of the false ideal which would have intimidated and enslaved Europe if it had triumphed.

"Our real enemy," he continued, "is the war spirit fostered in Prussia. There would be no peace in the world until the shrine of the war spirit in Potsdam is shattered and its priesthood is dispersed and is discredited forever."

The premier said he had hoped the enemy's terrible might might be broken this year, but that the temporary collapse of the Russian military power had postponed this hope. But time was on the side of the allies, he said. Time once was neutral but two things have changed this, namely, the advance of the allies and the increasing failure of the German submarine war.

The war, said the premier, was terrible in itself, but more terrible in the possibilities it revealed of new horrors on land and sea and in the air. It must be settled now, once for all, he declared, if the war should be renewed after thirty years more of scientific application it would mean the death of civilization. Brute force must be destroyed forever.

To realize what the advent of America meant, the premier went on, it was necessary only to look back on the rapid growth of the little British army. America was now starting, and its resources in man power were twice those of Britain. British shipbuilding, said the premier, has increased fourfold, and America had done likewise. Germany laughed at the war declarations of China and other nations, but these declarations meant that most of the world's food and raw materials were under the flags of Germany's enemies, which could reduce Germany to impotence and desolation."

Ex-cannibal's Regret
Dr. Cecil Wilson, elected Bishop of Bunbury, Australia, formerly held the See of Melanesia, which comprises what used to be called the "Cannibal Islands." There he had for a servant a young native who, before his conversion, had been a cannibal. One day the bishop received among presents from home, a tin of sheep's tongues, on which he made a raid for his luncheon. The boy looked on, his mouth watering, but with perplexity writ large on his face. He afterwards confessed that he thought the tongues were human, and that his episcopal master had relapsed into cannibalism. The dish had been the delight of his unregenerate days.—London Daily News.

British Air Service

Progress in Construction of Aircraft During the War

A recent English writer on the use of aircraft in war says: "The Royal Flying Corps went to war with about eighty-two machines in passably good condition; they were dependent upon France for engines and upon Germany for magnets. The Belgian army had about thirty efficient aeroplanes, and the French between 500 and 600. Germany took the field with more than 600 two-seated aeroplanes designed throughout for war service, besides hundreds of slower units for training and other purposes. She had strategically placed on the frontiers twenty-one flying grounds illuminated by powerful lighting systems—in one case a 27,000,000 candle power revolving electric flash—for use in night flying, while a year later British pilots attacking Zeppelins had to do with searchlights and searchlight buckets for lighting the landing places. A month before the war German and Austrian officers visited the concentration camp at Netherwood and carefully noted the British strength in aircraft. From this picture the writer turns to the progress of British aeroplane construction during the first year of the war, thousands in the second, many thousands in the third, and had in view plans for the production of tens of thousands in the fourth."

They Cannot See the Point Against the United States

Strange Grievance of Germany Against the United States

Germans are not saying as much nowadays as formerly about our sales of ammunition to the allies, but they still cling to the curious notion that by those sales we were guilty of prolonging the war and increasing its slaughter.

What they mean when they say that is that, because of supplies bought in this country, France and England were not conquered as easily as, in German opinion, they would have been otherwise, and many German lives have in consequence been saved by preventing the export of advantages in this—that it would not have been good for the world to have Germany quickly victorious—does not occur to the Germans, and probably it never will.

Only this week the president of the reichstag sneered at the use of the word "humanity" by President Wilson—"the man who had the power to preserve hundreds and thousands of lives by preventing the export of munitions and war material from America to the entente."

This is surely the strangest of grievances to be presented by men in so many ways intelligent.—From the New York Times.

AMERICAN FINANCIAL EXPERT ON CANADA'S BUSINESS POSSIBILITIES

A NATION WITH THE PRIDE OF AN EMPIRE

Mr. Clinton B. Evans, Writing in the Philadelphia Public Ledger. Tells of the Wonderful Strides Made by Canada, and Admits The United States Can Learn Something From Her

Among distinguished American men of affairs who have recently visited Canada for the purpose of personally investigating the country's prospects and opportunities is Mr. Clinton B. Evans, editor of "The Economist," and Western editorial representative of the Philadelphia Public Ledger. In a recent article in the "Philadelphia Public Ledger" Mr. Evans has some things to say of Canada which makes interesting reading:

"Purpose and other combination of effort have achieved wonders with seemingly small material other than that which nature has provided. The bank deposits of Canada are about the same as those of the one city of Chicago, that is, $1,500,000,000, and yet within a generation a huge wild aggregation of mountain peaks and river has been set up among the nations with its 3,700 miles from Atlantic to Pacific. A government which conceives its duty to be the promotion of the people's interests, a railroad company which 'spans the world' with rail and steamship, a population with the vigor and ambition of pioneers, a tradition that runs its trail back to the days of Charles the Second, over the history of the Hudson's Bay company—these are some of the potencies which have given a colony the pride of an empire."

"Then Canada has two rich veins. More of a favorite with British investors than India or Australia has been this stretch of the Western Hemisphere, and the United States has turned in its funds freely. It is not merely that the Canadian Pacific was largely constructed with money from these sources and that huge and beautiful hotels were built. A country that raises, grows wheat on the fifty-ninth parallel, that is more than 1,100 miles north of Chicago, that claims one-seventh of the known coal deposits in the world in the province of Alberta alone, that has untold mineral wealth in its mountains, does not appeal in vain to the owners of investible capital. For temporary accommodation, as well as large loans, the United States is handy. Banking relations are close, and liberal balances are carried in American cities. There will be a stronger invitation than ever to the capital of the States now that so great an overstrain has been placed on the resources of London. In small sums, too, ninety per cent. of the tourist travel in normal years is American.

"It seems all very American in spite of some British architecture in the cities, the Scotch brogue everywhere and the French in the eastern provinces. Relations with our northernmost neighbor St. Paul, Minneapolis and Seattle—are close. 'The States' are not foreign."

"The United States, notably Chicago, can learn something from the new Canada. Winnipeg claims to handle more wheat than any other point on this continent. Meats will come next. The tendency is to locate all these industries at points far outlying from Chicago. But the stringent invitation is in cheap lands and the vigor of a northern population. It will be a healthy competition with our people, who perhaps are too content with their prosperous lot."

COPENHAGEN CHEWING TOBACCO

Simply Place It In The Mouth Between Lower Lip and Gum.

This is the way to get all the flavor and satisfaction out of every pinch of Copenhagen Chewing Tobacco. You see, "Copenhagen" is made of the best, old, high flavored leaf tobacco. The manufacturing process—by which the leaf tobacco is converted into tiny grains, and scientifically prepared—retains all the good of the tobacco.

Those who are trying "Copenhagen" for the first time, should remember to use only a small quantity, and to place the pinch in the mouth between the lower lip and the gum, without any attempt at chewing it.

Whipping a Tired Horse Does Not Give Him Strength

YOU may whip a tired horse so that he will win a race or get his load over a bad spot in the road, but that does not add to his strength. In reality it further depletes his reserve of strength and leaves him exhausted.

And so it is with the nerves of the human body. You may by use of stimulants accomplish the work in hand or by deadening the nerves with narcotics you may stop the headaches.

Any temporary relief obtained is won at an enormous expense to the nervous system and you are left more exhausted than ever.

The introduction of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food was revolutionary in the treatment of nervous diseases, because it replaced the old idea of obtaining tempor-

The Food Cure

Braintree, Mass., North, Grand Street North, Braintree, Ont., writes: "Both my husband and I can speak very highly of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, having used it with splendid results. My husband suffered from weakness and a run-down system, and he was so bad he finally had to give up work. He also had spells of melancholia. He commenced using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after a treatment of this medicine I never saw such a change in anybody. He is now able to attend to his work, and is enjoying splendid health."

Before I started taking Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I was troubled with nervousness, sleeplessness and a pain around the heart. The Nerve Food built up my system, made me feel stronger in every way, and relieved me of the annoying symptoms from which I had suffered. any relief with the new method of reconstructing the starved and depleted nerve cells.

A little patience is required to follow out this building-up process, but this is the only way in which disease of the nerves can be really cured. The nerves are starved for proper nourishment. You supply the nutrition in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. The results are certain, because you are working hand in hand with Nature.

As strength is restored the appetite is sharpened, digestion improves, you get the good of the food you eat, headaches disappear, you find yourself gaining in confidence, in vigor and in energy. You begin to have new ambitions, to enjoy your work and to feel again that life is really worth living.

BRITISH SMASH THROUGH HINDENBURG'S LINE FOR FIVE MILES SCORE GREATEST VICTORY OF THE WAR IN SURPRISE ATTACK EIGHT THOUSAND PRISONERS TAKEN

In the greatest drive of the war the British have smashed the famous Hindenburg line, on a front of thirty-two miles, and have penetrated to a depth of five miles. Without any artillery preparation the troops charged the Huns, taking them by surprise. Hundreds of tanks cleared the way for the infantry and did effective work. British cavalry were also into action and did excellent service. The British casualties were very light.
